

HOLBERG
P R I Z E

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

THE HOLBERG PRIZE 2019

Deadline: June 15th 2018

The Holberg Prize is awarded to scholars who have made outstanding contributions to research in the arts and humanities, social sciences, law or theology. The Prize is worth NOK 6 million (approx. EUR 617 000 / USD 760 000). Scholars holding positions at universities, academies or other research institutions are entitled to nominate.

To nominate go to www.holbergprize.com

HOLBERG PRIZE LAUREATES 2004–2017

- 2017 Onora O'Neill – Philosophy
- 2016 Stephen Greenblatt – Literature
- 2015 Marina Warner – Literature
- 2014 Michael Cook – History, Religion
- 2013 Bruno Latour – Anthropology, Science Studies
- 2012 Manuel Castells – Sociology, Geography
- 2011 Jürgen Kocka – History
- 2010 Natalie Zemon Davis – History
- 2009 Ian Hacking – Science Studies
- 2008 Fredric R. Jameson – Literature
- 2007 Ronald Dworkin – Law
- 2006 Shmuel N. Eisenstadt – Sociology
- 2005 Jürgen Habermas – Sociology, Philosophy
- 2004 Julia Kristeva – Literature, Philosophy

"The Holberg Prize is exceptional in acknowledging the importance of the humanities and its related subjects, social sciences, law and theology."

Marina Warner,
Holberg Prize Laureate 2015

 Mijamerket trykksak 2011 0699

